ECVS plans to make copies of any award winning videos, for showing at various events, and publishing on the ECVS website. Any member who does not agree to their video being used in this way should tick this box.

The "First Award Competition" is a sub-competition to the main Annual Competition. It is open to any member who has never previously won a film or video competition (either in E.C.V.S. or elsewhere). Members eligible for the First Award Competition should tick this box.

I confirm that any necessary copyright clearance has been obtained for sound and visual elements of this film.
